Court St. Catherine Will Hold Eleventh Anniversary Fete

Four of the then-state officials who instituted the court eleven years ago will be present this Sunday, April 29, when Court St. Catherine of the Catholic Daughters of America holds its annual communion breakfast.

Mrs. Alexander Caprine of Los Angeles, now vice state regent, was state monitor at that time. Mrs. Wilma Lewis of Los Angeles was state regent, Mrs. Catherine Walters of Long Beach was state extension chairman, and Mrs. Joseph Greaves of Manhattan Beach was district deputy.

and guests will join with members of the court in observing the eleventh anniversary. Members will attend 8 a.m. mass at Nativity Catholic church, and receive communion in a body. The mass will be offered by the pastor, Reverend P. J. McGuinness, who was appointed court chaplain upon its institution and is still serving in that capacity.

Registration For Meadow Park Planned

Meadow Park school is planning pre-registration and health examinations on Tuesday and Wednesdays, May 15 and 16, for children who will be entering kindergarten next September.

Mrs. Francis Gately, junior past grand regent, is chairman for the breakfast, to be served at the Wayfarer's Inn on Pacific Coast highway. Assisting her in making arrangements are three other past grand regents of the court: Mesdames Frank H. Forester, T. T. Babbitt, J. J. MacDonald, and William LeBlanc.

Parents may call the school office for an appointment.

Purple and gold, the colors of the order, will be carried out in floral decorations of the tables and in the programs for the breakfast, according to Mrs. Gately.

In order to be eligible for kindergarten next year, a child must be five years of age by December 1, 1956. This means that he will be four years and nine months old by September 1, 1956.

No formal program is planned. Greetings will be brought from the grand regent, Mrs. William Hardesty, and the dignitaries present.

Each child must bring a birth certificate or other official verification of birth.

Invocation will be given by Father McGuinness.
